RESOURCES FOR WORKERS IMPACTED BY COVID-19

The coronavirus pandemic has impacted the lives of millions of working people and their families. Visit <https://aflcio.org/covid-19/state-resources> and select your state to find the resources, programs and benefits available in your area.

How Airline Workers Can

PROTECT THEMSELVES FROM COVID-19

Symptoms often include a fever, cough or shortness of breath. Our understanding of the virus is evolving as we learn more about it. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention has all the latest information about how the disease spreads and how workers can protect themselves, including targeted fact sheets for various job categories in the airline industry.
