Section 2: It is the desire and intention of the parties to provide a cooperative relationship with a contemporary approach to Union Management relations between Sportservice and the Union. This collective bargaining agreement negotiated between the parties is to secure prompt and equitable disposition of grievances, to maintain fair wages, hours and other working conditions, to prevent strikes and lockouts and to promote good relations between Sportservice and the employees and observance of Company rules for their mutual benefit.

Section 3: In recognition of the foregoing, both parties agree to meet at regular intervals, at the request of either party, to discuss employee suggestions, problems, methods of improving morale and other similar subjects. Ongoing communication at all levels is essential for this optimal labor-management relationship.

ARTICLE 2 – RECOGNITION – UNION MEMBERSHIP-CHECK-OFF – DUES

Section 1:

(a) All employees shall have the choice to remain members in good standing of the Union by tendering to the Union the initiation fees and periodic dues to the Union that are the obligation of members.

(b) Newly hired employees shall have the choice to become and remain members in good standing of the Union by tendering to the Union the initiation fees and periodic dues to the Union that are the obligation of members.

(c) No provisions of this article shall prohibit employees to become members of the Union prior to the 31st calendar day of employment.

(d) The Employer shall honor and effectuate the payroll deduction authorization card attached to this Collective Bargaining Agreement, and incorporated herein by reference, for each employee who signs said card, for such period as each authorization is in effect. The Employer shall deduct for each payroll or at such other intervals/times otherwise designated by the Union the amount authorized by the employee and promptly transmit such amount to the Union. The parties acknowledge that the cost of establishing and administering payroll deduction has been taken into account by the parties in their negotiation of the overall economic terms of this Collective Bargaining Agreement.
(e) In the event there is a change in law so that obtaining or continuing employment may be conditioned on the payment of Union dues or service fees, the Employer and the Union agree that the following language shall govern: The language currently in effect in this section and article.

(f) Sportservice will provide on a quarterly basis, an employer roster including: Name, Address, Full Social Security Number, Telephone Number, House Seniority Date, Full-Time or Part-Time Status electronically to the Union.

Section 2: If new classifications are established by Sportservice coming within the jurisdiction of the Union, negotiations will be entered into for the schedule of wages and other terms and conditions of employment which shall govern said new classifications.

ARTICLE 3 – SENIORITY

Section 1:

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary which may be contained herein a newly hired employee shall have a probationary period. Probation for daiquiri stand employees, food and beverage concession employees, commissary employees, hospitality and suite employees, and Tiger Club employees, merchandise sales employees, food and beverage vending employees and program vending employees shall be considered as thirty-five (35) ticketed events or less. Probation for housekeeping employees and merchandise warehouse employees shall be thirty-five (35) workdays or less. Probationary employees shall be scheduled to work (given the opportunity to work) when work is available. Said thirty-five (35) ticketed probationary events or thirty-five (35) workdays must be worked within a twelve (12) month period from the date of the first event worked. Should said employee not be available for work during such twelve (12) month period to the extent that he/she is unable to complete his/her probationary period said employee shall lose credit for all events worked previously and must begin again.

(b) During such probationary period, said employee shall not gain seniority and shall be subject to discharge by Sportservice without recourse to the grievance and arbitration procedure. A probationary employee shall gain seniority and shall cease being a probationary employee upon completion of working his/her thirty-fifth (35) ticketed event or thirty-fifth (35) workday within such twelve (12) month period regardless of the season of the year. All probationary events must be completed at the primary source of employment.

Section 2: Seniority shall be determined as of the date of the employee’s most recent date of hire during the twelve (12) month period, wherein said employee ceased being a probationary employee and established his/her seniority. In the event two (2) or more employees are hired on the same date, a lottery, which shall be fair and equitable, shall be held to rank employees in seniority. Notwithstanding the foregoing a transferring employee shall always rank higher than new hires when the date of hire and date of transfer are identical.

Section 3: In order to maintain seniority rights employees must be available to work when given twenty-four (24) hours notice to report. In the event of a change in work report time without a twenty-four (24) hour notice to the employee, the employee shall be held harmless from disciplinary actions if he/she cannot meet the change in schedule.

Section 4: It is agreed by Sportservice and the Union that Sportservice shall and hereby does recognize seniority rights of employees in their respective classifications and that the employees shall be promoted, demoted, laid off and returned to service according to their length of service and that work schedules shall be made in accordance with seniority. Stand leaders, by virtue of their seniority may work as stand personnel.

Section 5: No employee shall be hired while employees who have worked for Sportservice are on layoff and available for work, provided, however, that the former employee qualifies in the opinion of Sportservice.

Section 6: Food and beverage vending employees, regardless of the depot being worked shall have their names maintained on one seniority list for purposes of obtaining work. Once seniority is obtained the food and beverage vendor may choose which depot to work based on available open slots within the depots. Food and beverage vending employees will submit their depot selection at the end of the current home stand for the next home stand. The amount of slots will be decided by Sportservice prior to the vendor's selection. Qualified food and beverage vending employees shall by virtue of their overall seniority, have their choice of which item to be sold and depot sections to be worked. The product distribution will be selected by Sportservice prior to the vendor depot selection. If Sportservice find is necessary to move a food and beverage vendor(s) due to a shortage of food and beverage vending employees in a particular depot, Sportservice shall have the right to move the lowest senior vendor(s) on the overall seniority list working that day. If a depot is closed for any reason Sportservice agrees to relocate those affected food and beverage vending employees to another depot. Sportservice will make reasonable best efforts to put the affected food and beverage vendor(s) on the same item, but in the depot selected by Sportservice. There shall be no bumping of vendors when Sportservice relocates the affected food and beverage vendor(s) to another depot. Probationary food and beverage vending employees will be assigned depot, slot and item as directed by Sportservice.

Section 7: Seniority termination – Seniority rights shall terminate if an employee:

(a) Quits or retires;

(d) Is laid off or on a leave of absence for a period equal to the employee's seniority or one (1) year whichever is less;
(e) Is engaged in gainful employment while on medical leave of absence. (This shall not preclude an employee from working for his/her full time Employer while on a medical leave from Sportservice).

Section 8 – Promotions: An employee promoted to a supervisory position shall retain his/her accumulated seniority for one (1) year. An employee promoted to a supervisory position shall accumulate additional seniority while occupying a supervisory position. If an employee occupies a supervisory position for more than one (1) year, the employee shall lose all seniority rights.
Section 9 – Vacancy, Promotions, New Positions:

(a) When a new classification is created said classification shall be made known to all employees in all units by posting the classification on the employees’ bulletin board, giving full explanation of responsibilities and job description. Employees desiring consideration for the new classification shall place their name on a special roster for the classification. When skill and ability are equal the senior employee shall have preference over other employees and applicants, provided, however Sportservice reserves the right to make final determination on skill and ability. When an employee transfers from one classification to another and then the job within the classification transferred into by the employee is eliminated, the employee may return to his/her former classification with the amount of seniority he/she had accumulated in the original classification.

(b) Whenever a vacancy or promotion, excluding those created by leaves of absence or vacations occurs, it shall be made known to those employees who have previously placed their name on a roster for filing of vacancies and promotion. When skill and ability are equal, the senior employees have preference over other employees and applicants. However, Sportservice reserves the right to make final determination of skill and ability. Such roster shall be open for additional names each quarter and a copy sent to the Union. A successful bidder shall not be allowed to bid on another position for one (1) year. Upon transfer an employee’s seniority in the classification from which he/she transferred shall be frozen for a period of twelve (12) months for purposes of any subsequent return to that classification pursuant to this Agreement. (d) After an employee transfers from one classification to another the employee must work in his/her new classification and cannot work in his/her former classification unless he/she permanently returns to that classification during the probationary period, upon lay off due to job elimination or transfers back after one (1) year of service in the new classification.
